Bio:

I'm from Baton Rouge, although I did live several years in Texas. Now that I am back in Baton Rouge, I have a hard time convincing people I'm not from Texas because I evidently picked up some Texas "twang" in my accent! I received my Bachelor's degree from LSU and my Ph.D.

from a satellite campus of Texas A&M. I have been teaching English for 20 years and I still love it! I have six grandchildren who call me Maw Maw, and as you can tell from my photo, I am a "Trekker!" This picture, as a matter of fact, was taken at the Star Trek Con in Vegas in 2019.
