

Dr. Zachary Isenhower

HIST 2055: The US to 1865

zisenhower1@lsu.edu

225- 578-4452

Office: 250G Himes Hall

Research Interests:

Native American legal and diplomatic resistance to U.S. expansion; U.S. Indian policy; impacts of Indian rights on American citizenship and national identity.

Education:

Ph.D., Louisiana State University, 2018

M.A., Kansas State University, 2011

B.A., Kansas State University, 2009

Previous Classes:

United States History, Native American Resistance and Adaptation, Colonial and Revolutionary America.

Recent Awards:

Friends of the American Philosophical Society Fellowship, The American Philosophical Society, 2017.

Robert L. McNeil, Jr. Fellowship, The Historical Society of Pennsylvania and The Library Company of Philadelphia, 2017.

Dissertation Year Fellowship, The Graduate School, Louisiana State University, 2017.